2010 Staffing Industry Awards

ACSESS Award of Excellence

The premier ACSESS award given in recognition of the recipient's outstanding contributions to the Association and the staffing industry in Canada. This honour is given only in years when an individual stands out for their exemplary commitment and leadership.

Award criteria and considerations include: The extent of volunteer involvement on ACSESS National and Chapter Boards; service on, and contributions to, other professional and industry association boards and committees; training and speaking accomplishments; demonstration of exceptional service and dedication provided to the staffing and recruitment industry in Canada.

The ACSESS Circle of Excellence – The Circle of Excellence includes all Award of Excellence recipients, as well as past recipients of the ESSAC Bill Coke Award and the APPAC Outstanding Contributor Award.

Leadership Award

Presented to an ACSESS member who has demonstrated exceptional leadership and commitment to ACSESS over an extended period of time.

Award criteria and considerations include: Positions held on ACSESS National Board and/or Committees and/or Chapter Board; demonstration of proactive leadership within elected and appointed positions; exceptional dedication to fulfill elected and voluntary responsibilities.

Special Recognition Award

Presented to an ACSESS member in recognition of their exceptional contribution to a project or initiative that raises industry standards and/or enhances ACSESS services.

Award criteria and considerations include: Review of the project/file, or industry and/or government initiative; demonstration of the individual's role and accomplishments that go beyond expectations; measurable results and/or successful implementation of the project or service.

ACSESS Community Service Corporate Award

Presented to an ACSESS member company that has shown an extraordinary commitment to, and genuine concern for, the community at large. To be eligible for this award, a company and its employees must be involved in public service activities that return value to the community by supporting charities, education and other community groups.

Award criteria and considerations include: Consideration of the commitment to community service/charities; education; organizations (associations/ colleges etc); volunteerism of company employees.

Health & Safety Corporate Award

Presented to a company in the staffing services industry that has demonstrated outstanding performance in workplace health and safety.

Award criteria and considerations include: Leadership of senior management demonstrating commitment to H&S; communication of H&S information within the company; planning, development & maintenance to integrate H&S into business practices; participation in industry programs.

Chapter of the Year Award

The chapter of the year is selected based on a regional chapter's support of the ACSESS mission and key objectives, and delivery of services to members at the local level.

Awards Presentation and Luncheon - Thursday, May 13, 2010
Delta Meadowvale Hotel, Mississauga